

Parth Badheka, Advocate

The publication titled Comparative Analysis – Pre and Post 22nd September 2025 GST Rate Structure and Impact Analysis could not have come at a more opportune time. The recent rate rationalisations following the 56th GST Council Meeting have had widespread implications across sectors, and this publication provides great analysis and streamlines those developments into a format that is both practical and insightful. The authors have taken great pains to compile a work that goes beyond mere rate comparison. It captures the intricacies of classification, valuation, and transitional issues that businesses and practitioners are grappling with. The publication's industry-wise mapping of rate changes will undoubtedly serve as a handy ready reckoner for professionals navigating the post-September regime. For 75 years, it has been the ethos an.....