

Mahesh Madkholkar

A Year of Transformation: Charting the Course for Growth and Excellence The year 2025 has proven to be a landmark year, ushering in revolutionary changes across the economic, taxation, and professional landscapes. With pivotal events such as the Union Budget 2025, the continuous evolution of GST, and the grandeur of the Mahakumbh at Prayagraj, this period has reinforced the strength of our nation's financial, regulatory, and cultural framework. The Goods and Services Tax Practitioners' Association of Maharashtra (GSTPAM) has been at the forefront, ensuring that its members stay ahead of the curve through insightful discussions, expert-led sessions, and impactful engagements. Past Events: A Journey of Learning and Collaboration GSTPAM has successfully conducted several impactful events in recent months, empowering members with knowledge and strategic insights: