Dear Esteemed Members of GSTPAM, A Nation's Strength in Unity It is with profound respect for our nation that I address you today. India has recently demonstrated its growing global influence and unwavering commitment to its citizens through Operation Sindoor—a meticulously executed mission that safely brought home hundreds of Indians from conflict zones. This operation stands as a testament to India's diplomatic prowess, military excellence, and humanitarian values. Simultaneously, we witnessed a heart-wrenching tragedy in Pahalgam, Jammu & Kashmir, where 26 innocent lives were lost in a terrorist attack. This sobering event reminds us of the persistent challenges to our national security and reinforces the importance of remaining unified in our resolve for peace and prosperity. Our Professional Mission: Building India's Economic Foundation As GSTPAM, while we do not serve on battl.....
