

Kishor Lulla and Anil Vakharia

Life is indeed unpredictable, and none of us know what the future holds or when our time will come. The sudden passing away of Shri. Sureshji Lunawat, a 75 year old CA from Pune on May 31st in Baku, Azerbaijan, is a poignant reminder of this reality. Sureshji, known for his smiling face and jovial nature, was enjoying a trip with friends and colleagues. Just hours before his passing away, he was laughing, joking, and sharing stories with the group. His sudden demise due to a cardiac arrest left everyone in shock. A Life Well-Lived Sureshji Lunawat was a man who lived life to the fullest. He had a loving family, including three daughters, son-in-laws and grandchildren. His involvement in various groups, including taxation and Marwadi communities, Society and original Aurangabad group showcased his sociable and enthusiastic personality. Despite facing personal loss of his spouse 8 years ago, Sureshji continued to engage himself in happy moments.....