

D. H. Joshi

Determined to cross finish line on trade deal: US Envoy Gor US Ambassador to India Sergio Gor who came to Delhi, India on 12 Jan 2026 said “Both nations remain ‘actively’ engaged”. Stressing that India is a very large nation, Gor said “It is not easy task to get this across the finish line, but we are determined to get there”. Delivering his first public address after taking over as ambassador, he said the US and India were bound not just by shared interests but by relations anchored at the highest levels. “Real friends can disagree but always resolve their differences in the end”, Gor said, conveying American President Donald Trump’s warm wishes to “dear friend” Prime Minister Narendra Modi. Gor hoped the President would be visiting India soon, “hopefully in the next year or two”. Gor who is a close aide of the American President, join.....