

Chirag Parekh

Tax Advocate & Notary Public I have started my journey with Esteemed Association named Goods & Service Tax Association of Maharashtra (GSTPAM), formerly known as Sales Tax Practitioner's Association of Maharashtra (STPAM) when I became a member in the year 1980 Approx. As I have already started my practice with my Father Late Shri Shashikant K. Parekh, who was very dedicated member of our Association. He was always attending seminars, conferences, RRC and always bring news and copies of Judgement from Mumbai High Court. He inspired me to become of member of Association as I was already in practice with him. Then after looking into my work he insisted me to become a member of Managing Committee and hence first I became a Member of Managing Committee in the year 1990, thereafter working for more than seven years as a Member of MG. Comm. then gradually I became Secretary, Treasurer, Vice President and then achieved highest post which is President in the y.....
