I] Introduction Goods and service tax Practitioner Association of Maharashtra, formed in 1951 the first year of our Republic. We have been speaking of Private Public partnership, The representation before the Authorities is the practitioners basic duty. This Primary Duty requires an Honesty to the Law. The true likelihood of capture when engaging in an illegal activity, such as tax evasion, is not well known to an individual. “Official” statements from the tax administration regarding enforcement effort provide some information. Like the Trade Circulars, The Minutes of GST Council Meetings, with 4300 members the Association. It is an elite organization that has been for last 75 years carrying a duty to the practitioners on various fronts which is a link with the Government and a platform to Fraternize with the other practitioners. This link and fraternization have given rise to various activities of the Association. (fra.....
