

Shashank Dhond

It is my honour to shoulder this herculean task of an Editor of our prestigious GSTPAM Review, which is recognised as mouthpiece of our Association. I sincerely thank our President and the Managing Committee for selecting me for this important assignment and it will not be possible for me to complete my job without the help of our Associate Editor Mr. Mayur Parekh and my predecessor Mr Dhaval Talati. He had done a great job. I also look forward to the active support of the “Journal Committee”, the column writers, the article writers, and the paper writers and also the Seniors. I will put in all my efforts to bring in more and more knowledge for the benefit of the readers of this Journal. I am sure that more and more members will subscribe to this Journal and take benefit of the articles and latest updates given by learned and experienced writers. The State of Maharashtra has declared
