

Shashank Dhond

HOPE & OPTIMISM:THE BEST GIFTS THIS FESTIVE SEASON To say the past few years have been a bit difficult for the Indian Economy would be an understatement. A strong transition towards online and digital systems for business and payments, followed by a complete overhaul of the Indirect taxation system as we have known for decades with the introduction of the GST regime, a tricky global economy followed by almost two years of a Global Pandemic that brought the entire economy to a standstill. But there seems to be a change in the air as the festive season comes in this year, this Dussehra & Diwali bring us new hope & optimism to look forward to. As the saying goes, the darkest hour is always before dawn, the Indian economy is ready for its new dawn as it stands back up, ever motivated, and ready to move forward and grow. To begin, let's discuss the major milestones of GST during the past.....