

Shri Prakash Vishnu Surte, B.com., LL.B. Senior Advocate, was born on 1-4-1928 at Nandgaon Nasik District. In the Professional fraternity across the State, he is recognised as the most articulate lawyer and a man of all seasons. He became most popular amongst the mofussil practitioners due to his clear thinking of the subject and its exposition in simple language. He is equally at ease while delivering his tax talk in that if his blood-count is taken, you would find only “Sales tax” in it. As far as the Review and Association are concerned, he has declared that his first priority is for Association work. So here is the interview of a fines professional brother which our readers would like to preserve in their memory forever! - Editor (This Interview of Shri P. V. Surte was printed in the July 1996 issue of STR — Editor)
