

Sunil Khushalani

Dear Esteemed Members, “Great News that, the World Health Organization has declared that, Covid is no more a Global Emergency” Current affairs are always part of day today life of every individual. Events mentioned here are observed annually and always make it to the headline. It is important to know their history, significance, and theme. World Hypertension Day (17th May) On World Hypertension Day, information about the condition of hypertension and its causes are spread. Since this day spreads awareness about a health condition that takes up many lives every year, this day is considered one of the important days in May. World Hypertension Day was founded by The World Hypertension League. World No Tobacco Day (31st May) One of the most important days in May, World No Tobacco Day shares the message of giving