

Pravin V. Shinde

Dear Esteemed Members, In my first communication to you as the President of the Goods and Services Tax Practitioners' Association of Maharashtra let me thank and express my sincere gratitude to all of you for reposing your trust and confidence in me and bestowing the honour of being the President of this august Association. I express my sincere gratitude to all of you for unanimously and unopposed electing me as President of this esteemed association "GSTPAM". It has been a wonderful journey for me to reach this esteemed post. I proudly say that, whatever I am today in the Profession, because of GSTPAM. I am aware of the responsibility that this office carries and will make every effort to discharge it to the best of my ability. I am confident that with the blessings, support and guidance of seniors and my team of Office Bearers and Managing Committee.....
