

Ashwin Shah

Redevelopment of the Society – Issues faced by New Buyers This has been burning issues under redevelopment of co-operative housing societies for the new buyers (prospective member of the society) to protect their rights of getting flat possession or refund of monies, in the event of termination of development agreement by society and appointment of new developer or continuing self development by the society. The point of consideration in the event of termination of development agreement of developer is Whether Society or new developer would be obliged to perform the obligations of the old developer. What legal recourse is available to new buyers post implementation of RERA enactment. If the reliefs are den.....