Respected Sir,

4. Sir, as you are aware, the festival of Diwali, one of the most significant festivals celebrated across India, falls between 18th October 2025 (Dhanteras – Saturday) and 23rd October 2025 (Bhai Dooj).

The due date for filing GSTR-3B for the month of September 2025 is 20th October 2025 for monthly filers & 22nd /24th October 2025 for Quarterly filers, which falls right in the middle of the Diwali festive period. Given that Dhanteras falls on 18th October (Saturday), followed by Diwali and its associated celebrations in the days thereafter, businesses across sectors remain either fully or partially closed during this period.

Taxpayers, especially small and medium enterprises (SMEs), along with their accountants and consultants, face genuine hardship in meeting compliance requirements during this time due to staff unavailability, shortened working hours/closure, and business disruptions. It becomes practically difficult for taxpayers and tax professionals to ensure timely filing of returns during this period.

Non-compliance with the deadline due to such constraints results in avoidable interest and late fees, adding to the burden of taxpayers who are otherwise willing to comply but are prevented due to the timing of the due date.

5. In view of the above, we humbly request your good office to kindly consider granting a short extension of 8/10 days upto 30th October 2025 for filing and payment of GSTR-3B for the month of September 2025 including for QRMP Scheme across the country, to ease compliance burden during the festive period

- and provide relief to taxpayers. It is also requested that the due date for filing of ITC-04 which is also due on 25th October 2025 be extended to 30th October 2025.
- 6. Sir, we trust you will consider this representation favourably and provide timely relief to taxpayers at large. We shall be happy to meet you personally and explain the situation. The issue requires your immediate attention and intervention.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,

For The Goods & Services Tax Practitioners' Association of Maharashtra
